

Captain Marion Comments

A very warm Sea View welcome to all the new members. It is great to see you out and about enjoying the club and the course. A warm welcome also to our new Bar Manager Oran, and Jasmine who will be replacing Sarah when she goes on maternity leave. Best wishes to Lexie and Sarah and welcome to their new babies.

Our last major function for the year, the Christmas Windup, on 6 December has a field of 31 players. playing Step Aside Ambrose. After the game, 34 ladies will enjoy festivities in the clubhouse.

Thank you to MaryRuth Squire who attended the Golf WA Captains' Meeting and brought Joan Knowles (incoming Captain) and me up to date.

Lorraine Rowley has generously donated new lockers which will soon be appearing in the ladies' changerooms. Lorraine and Kerry Strzina researched lockers for some time. Thank you girls.

Next year is 110 years anniversary of Sea View golf course and an occasion for an occasion. What shall we do?

Many thanks to all for the contributions made during the year. Some of the contributions are quite obvious, but there are a lot of special angels working behind the scenes who keep very quiet. I know who you are and thank you sincerely I would like to wish you all a happy Christmas time with family and friends.

See you around the greens.
Marion

PRESENTATION LUNCH

Our Presentation Lunch was attended by 39 ladies new, past and present. Special guests, Carol Leaver and daughter Kym, presented the Dockey Holland trophy for the Best Nett 36 holes in the opening rounds of the Championships.

Congratulations to Karen Hodson and Kerry Strzina who played so well throughout the year.

Karen presented with Consistency Trophy by Catherine Strickland 2017 winner.

9 Hole ladies

New Members

Summer season 9 hole competition has started. You are welcome to join us in the regular field.

The more experienced golfers are putting their names down in 2's so that you can slot in with them. Please take the plunge and join us.

The free membership period finishes at the end of December. Quite a number have joined taking advantage of the discounted membership. The discount is available until month end.

We look forward to seeing you around the greens and/or in the clubhouse in 2019.

All 9 Hole Players

Congratulations to Judy McNeill who achieved the best Eclectic score for 18 holes during the winter season. If she had played her all her best holes in one round her Gross score would have been 98. Well done Judy.

Judy McNeill spotted on Rottneest having a quietish celebration for her "0" birthday. Congratulations and happy birthday wishes Judy. You will get to wear the birthday hat!

Eleanore Fuchter away on another lovely holiday.

Mothers of the Brides this December are Margot Parkes and Maggie Shea. Congratulations and best wishes to the new couples.

Jane Swan back from her Italy adventure.

Chris Wilson sends her regards.

On Melbourne Cup Day the clubhouse was elegance personified. Outfits fit to grace the terraces at Flemington, and Fashions in the Field fashion parade courtesy of Weekend, featuring Eleanore Fuchter, Bev Jackson-Hooper, Joan Knowles, Di Hintz, Karen Hodson and Kerry Strzina, provided a touch of class.

Sunset Soiree at Sea View with Roderick McGrath, WASO Principal Cello was very much enjoyed by the 100 people who attended.

Eight Sea View ladies enjoyed taking part in the GolfWA Progressive Golf Day at WAGC and MLGC. Nine holes of golf at each course after breakfast and lunch.

Keith continues to make delicious cakes and goodies for us to enjoy with our coffees. These cakes compliment muffins, pies, sausage rolls and sandwiches made by Jo.

Three Clubs Challenge between Mosman Park, Sea View, Nedlands

Di Hintz, Marion Gathercole, Shelley Hopkinson, Lorraine Rowley, Lorraine Sims and Kerry Strzina represented Sea View women in the annual Challenge played in a Mixed teams 4BBB format at Mosman Park. A great day.
